

Law with a Year Abroad

Degree programme

GLOBAL OPPORTUNITIES

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

Do you want to take part in a Global Opportunity?

At the University of Liverpool, we believe in helping students become global citizens with a wide range of employability skills to help them succeed in the international and inter-cultural employment market after graduation. To support our students in gaining these invaluable skills, we offer the opportunity for you to study abroad for a year as part of the Law with a Year Abroad (M111) programme. You will spend the 3rd year of your studies at one of our European or International partner institutions studying law and/or social sciences related modules.

Why Global Opportunities?

Reports from the Higher Education Funding Council for England (HEFCE) tell us that students who participate in a global opportunity:

- Are more likely to be in further education or employment 6 months after graduating
- Earn higher than average salaries
- Are more likely to graduate with a 2:1 or First Class degree

Funding your global opportunity is important to all students and requires some careful planning. Luckily, there are lots of funding opportunities available to students, both from the University of Liverpool and from other organisations.

There are also the academic and personal benefits to participating in a global opportunity:

- improved study techniques
- increased self-awareness & self-reliance
- inspires their future career or study choices

What funding is available?

Funding your global opportunity is important to all students and requires some careful planning. Luckily, there are lots of funding opportunities available to students, both from the University of Liverpool and from other organisations. Find out more here:
liverpool.ac.uk/study-abroad/outbound/funding

Where can I go?

We have partner institutions all over the world, including Australasia, Europe and Asia. You can see our current list of partner universities here:
<https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/law/international/law-with-year-abroad/>

Where can I find out more?

Contact the School of Law and Social Justice for further information about the course:

Internationalisation Team
School of Law and Social Justice
slsjabroad@liverpool.ac.uk

