

Teaching and Lecturing Expression of Interest form

Thank you very much for expressing interest in contributing to the teaching delivery in the School of Medicine.

We are currently looking for colleagues who are post-foundation programme or at least two years post-qualification. To teach with us, you should have a substantive practice in the North-West of England or North Wales in hospital, hospice, community or primary care setting or within 12 months of retirement from such a post, and have worked in the UK for at least 6 months.

Please note: These posts are voluntary and unpaid.

For details of current paid posts please see either the School of Medicine website [<https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/medicine/teach-with-us/>] or, for posts across the whole University please visit our job vacancies website [<https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/working/jobvacancies/>].

To help us now match your interests to areas where teaching may be needed in the School, it would help us to have a little more information about you.
